The Salon Style Exhibition

Central Goldfields Art Gallery permanent collection

Arthur Boyd, Dean Bowen, Robert Bridgewater, Ray Crooke, Renee Gray, Jeff Makin, Tiffany Titshall and more.

Central Goldfields Art Gallery acquires works of excellence that relate to the Central Goldfields region and contemporary art quilts.

In the Salon Style Exhibition, the breadth of the Central Goldfields Art Gallery's permanent collection is celebrated. The salon hang is a term that originated in 1667 at the Royal Academy in Paris, in which paintings were densely hung on the wall. Expect to see some of the works from the collection that you may not have seen for a long time!

In 2021 Central Goldfields Art Gallery will be digitising the permanent collection, ensuring the public can easily access our growing collection online.

4 MARCH – 9 MAY 2021
6th Biennial Golden Textures Contemporary Art Quilt Exhibition

Contemporary textile artists will participate in the 6th Biennial Golden Textures Contemporary Art Quilt Exhibition. One quilt will be selected for the Central Goldfields Art Gallery's permanent collection and the winner will receive $3,000. The Golden Textures Award celebrates the region's long connection with textiles. Jenny Bacon, local textile artist and original curator of the exhibition, explains "The Maryborough Knitting Mill was a major part of manufacturing here (it began operations in 1923), during the time the town was the industrial hub of Central Victoria. It was not only a major employer in the town (particularly for women) it also had smaller off-shoots in many towns including Avoca, Beaufort, Newstead and many others." Golden Textures plays homage to this rich history as well as bringing together the work of exciting contemporary textile artists from around Australia.
